

Dream of a Job!

Once upon a time...a woman went into a beautiful store that had a reputation for quality merchandise. She said to the owner, "Sir, I would like to work for you, and I'll do a great job. In return, I would like the following:

FIRST: For everything that I sell, I want to keep about 25% - 35% as my commission. I also want to have first choice of all new merchandise with an additional discount or the opportunity to earn new items for FREE.

SECOND: I'll find other sharp people to sell for you, and I want to receive a bonus for each person I find.

THIRD: I want to work my own hours so that sometimes I can work a lot, and sometimes I can take time off.

FOURTH: After I have a team of new people working for you and maintain a consistent volume of company sale each month, I'd like a car allowance for using my personal car. As I continue to grow your company I would like the use of a company vehicle for business and pleasure. I would like you to pay for the insurance, the licensing each year...and I'd like a new vehicle every two years!

FIFTH: My family must always come first.

FINALLY: When I do well, I would like recognition honor, plus extra gifts like jewelry, an all expense paid vacation to Disney for myself and my family or a trip to Hawaii for my husband and I, and a reward of a Free Car, like a G6 Convertible with title in my name.

Can you give me these things?"

The owner was in shock...he laughed at her and said, "You can't be serious. You're living in a DREAM WORLD. There isn't an opportunity like that anywhere!"

Have you ever thought of doing what I do?
