EVERY DAY AMAZING

Every Day Amazing

p. 58

In these pages you'll find answers to the questions Team Tupperware® asks every day. How can we make ordinary tasks more efficient, and special occasions even more special? How can we help people everywhere get a little extra value—and a little extra enjoyment? That's been our goal since the start. And together, we're still going strong.

Where ingenious meets indispensable.

There are tools, and then there are Tupperware® tools. And once you know the difference, there's no going back. Way more than “just containers,” Tupperware® products are all about solving problems and flaunting the sleek style that's made our brand an icon.

Ready for anything.

Keeping organized and on top of your game isn't easy. That's why Tupperware® is all about getting the job done perfectly, efficiently, and intuitively—with a little extra joy along the way. In short, we've got this.

p. 52

Designed to be different.

We've been innovators from the start, famous for the quality, style, and function that other brands just can't imitate. From ultra-durable containers, to our famous airtight seals, to delightfully clever time-saving inventions, it's only a Tupperware® product if it says Tupperware®.

Buy once, love for life.

Durability is in our DNA—and today that matters more than ever. We're on a mission to create products that protect the planet as well as they protect food and belongings. With a longstanding tradition of quality and a focus on developing more sustainable materials, we're proud to be a driving force in the shift from single-use plastics.

“When I came to Tupperware we were broke and I was broken. My confidence was next to nothing. In Tupperware, I found myself again. I found the person inside me that was buried under the debris of failed businesses and a lack of confidence. I can honestly say it has made me a better wife, mother, and friend.

The Party gives me the opportunity to meet people I never would have met otherwise. I absolutely love the relationship that you have with someone when you are both working together toward a common goal!

The flexibility Tupperware offers is second to none! When life gets hectic, you can shift to more virtual options that you can do from anywhere and when your schedule allows it, you can do more in-person activities. There are so many routes you can take to reach your goal! I tell people if you have a will, we will find you the way. Try all the things. You might fall short with some, but you might surprise yourself at what you succeed at.”
