FACTS ABOUT JOINING TUPPERWARE

HOW MUCH MONEY CAN I MAKE?

We earn 25-35% profit of everything we sell. There are multiple ways of selling Tupperware® products. Examples are home parties, cooking classes, custom kitchens, workshops, multiple host events, office demos, virtual events such as Facebook parties, Zoom parties, texting parties, messenger parties and one to one sales. Holding two average events each week would give you around $1400 profit/month. What would you do with an extra $1400 at the end of the month?

HOW MUCH TIME WILL IT TAKE?

It's up to you how much time you'd like to invest and which way you'd like to share. If you're doing online parties, it's a few hours spread out throughout the week. A "live party" is about 2 hours away from home. How much time do you think you'd want to invest each week?

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST TO GET STARTED?

We have three kit options. Our Deluxe Business Kit has $320 product and supplies for a $119 investment. We also have a Smaller Starter kit, with 5 products for $59. Lastly, we have our Virtual opportunity which is only $15. It does not include any Tupperware® Brand Products, but registers you in the system. This is a great option for those that have a lot of Tupperware® products already, or those that are planning to do all of their parties online. It's also a great option for those that simply want to be a team member to take advantage of the discount and all the other perks that come along with being part of our team. All three options include a free customer website. Which sounds best for you?

HOW DO I GET STARTED?

You just say "Heck Yeah" I want to start my own Tupperware business. We'll order your kit and help you plan a launch. We recommend that every team member hold an event of some type. This will help you earn all the host benefits, recoup the cost of your kit, learn how to hold a successful event and let everyone know that you are their Tupperware® Connection.
