

Tupperware® U.S. and Canada Questions & Answers

Q. Who is eligible to participate?

A. All active Sales Force can participate.

Q. Who will see the submitted product demonstrations?

A. By submitting a Round 1 video, you assign all ownership rights in the video to Tupperware and its designees in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Contest. This means the Company or Home Office may use your video as it chooses, which may include uses for training & curriculum including on the TuppNow Knowledge Center, social media features, company-wide YouTube channel, etc.

Q. How will English, Spanish, and French videos be judged?

A. All videos will be judged and evaluated by fluent speakers of that language using the same scoring sheet. Videos from Round 2 and above will be translated in all languages.

Q. Can I submit more than one demonstration video?

A. Only one product demonstration video may be submitted per active Sales Force member. Select your best product(s) that allow you to successfully demonstrate within the judging criteria. If bilingual, you cannot submit a video in both languages, only one submission per consultant is allowed. The Judges' decisions are final.

Q. In what format file type should I submit my video?

A. You will need to submit your video as mp4 file format.

Q. What is the deadline to submit my Round 1 video to my Business Leader?

A. The deadline to submit your video is September 25, 2024.

Q. When will I know if my video was selected as the winner?

A. All video's will be judge by a selected group of leaders. All videos will be judged using the same criteria for categories and rating scale. There will be one winner per Business Leader Company for Round 1.

Q. What is the award for Round 1?

A. The award and value will be shared at the completion of Round 1.