Well, it's time for us to hustle! Don't worry—it's where your party gets really FUN...because it's time to think about your FRIENDS. A guest list of 50 people will be about right for earning the goodies you've chosen and I want to make sure I help you think of who to invite.

Of course, everyone who eats NEEDS Tupperware, but here's a few categories I think might help you narrow your list down to friends and family who:

- *want a healthy lifestyle
- *Like to feel organized
- *Look for deals/like to save money
- *are environmentally conscious
- *loves Tupperware already!

This is just a guide to help you get started. Try to keep your invite list to 40. We want to keep your event exclusive and I want you to have a chance to connect with friends.

P.S. Don't message anyone yet—I've got some great word choices and it's important we do it together! CHALLENGE #2 SNAP A PICTURE OF YOUR LIST WITHIN 24 HOURS AND YOU'LL RECEIVE A BONUS GIFT FROM ME. START YOUR PARTY BY ADDING 10+ ITEMS FROM OUR CATALOG TO YOUR WISHLIST!

Once I have your wishlist we will make your guest list together! GET YOUR FIRST GIFT BY COMPLETING THIS CHALLENGE!

You have SO many great goodies on here! I am so excited to partner with you for this party! Looking at your wish list, I do think you should consider joining my team as a personal shopper or a business builder. The membership fee is just $15 and that will give you 25% off any order you place during this party or after it has closed, for an entire year! We can easily convert your party to your first party as a Consultant, and that will give you ALL of the host benefits from Tupperware. Just like with me as a Consultant! PLUS you'd earn the sales credit which will earn you some additional gifts. Can I send you some more information so you can think about it?

Love it! Gathering people for food, fun, friendships and freebies really is a great way to unwind from the stress of everyday life.

Inviting is simple. You can copy and paste the script below, but try to add their name to make them feel special. Feel free to tweak it if you'd like, but be sure you are using private messaging ONLY and asking permission to invite them to the group. Those two things are so important! I recommend that you only invite 10 at a time. FB has been known to suspend accounts if you copy and paste rapidly and to lots of people.

Here's a simple way to invite:

Hi!
I'm not sure if you've heard, but I'm having a Tupperware get together right here on Facebook on March 25th. Can I send you a link to the group so you can check out the details and check your calendar?

****WAIT FOR HER TO REPLY****Once she replies YES, say:
Awesome! Here's a link to the group, and if you have any questions, just let me know. If I don't know the answer, my Consultant will!

****insert group link****

HELP YOUR GUESTS FEEL LOVED BY:

- ★ Sending a personal message. Avoid group chats and the "invite" button
- ★ Asking permission to send the invite AND by linking them to the group
- ★ Following up within 24 hours so they know you care and want them there.

LOOKING FOR MORE

choose either digital membership $15 OR business kit $109

We have two kit option. No matter which you choose, you'll have all of the same benefits, including a discount of 25% (or more!) on every purchase for a year. As always, no pressure! I just know it's the best deal Tupperware has to offer and I would love to help you snag their best offers. Think about it and if you decide YES, this can be your first party!

That host credit can be spent on anything you'd like from our full catalog (which is why I had you make your wish list from there). However, if you'd like to apply your host credit towards a host gift special, you'll end up with about twice as much in product vs. a shopping spree. What do you think about this set?

Today is a good day to double check the list of "members" in your party and see who hasn't accepted. They may need a little help if they don't know how to accept the invite to the group. They may also realize that they aren't available to attend. No worries, they can check out all the posts and participate in the giveaways.

For the guest who have joined us, I've posted in the group a few pics of how to turn on their notifications. Please be sure and tag them so they know they are in the right place, and they know how to switch their settings.

Speaking of tagging, as I start posting, if you see anything you're interested in or anything you feel someone else might like, be sure and tag them with a few words sharing WHY you tagged them.
